

Take a Stand!

By taking an ad in the Labor Day issue of New Ground. Express your solidarity to an audience of labor and community activists, academics, retirees and even a few politicians in Chicago, in Illinois and across the nation while helping build a movement for an egalitarian, democratic society.

Your contribution will help us maintain and expand New Ground. Your contribution will help us advocate for fair trade rather than free trade, advocate for universal health care, support labor law reform. It will affirm a politics of solidarity, equality and democracy over narrow special interest. Your presence in these pages will be an affirmation of social justice. Here is the menu:
